LOCATION

Exmouth is a thriving coastal town in East Devon, renowned for its historic port, beautiful beaches and vibrant tourism economy, which supports strong year round trade. The town benefits from excellent transport connectivity. Exmouth is just 8 miles south of Junction 30 of the M5 motorway, providing swift access north to Bristol and the Midlands and south to Exeter and Plymouth. The A30 and A303 corridors offer direct east-west links across southern England. Exmouth benefits from a substantial local and tourist catchment, with a population of circa 36,000 and swelling significantly during peak seasons.

DESCRIPTION

The subject property occupies a highly prominent position on the prime section of Chapel Street, in the heart of Exmouth town centre. Nearby national retailers include Boots, Vodafone, Iceland, TG Jones, and The Co-op, ensuring strong footfall throughout the day. The property directly benefits from its proximity to Exmouth's main shopper car park, located immediately to the rear, providing convenient access for visitors.

DEMOGRAPHIC & ECONOMIC PROFILE

Exmouth has a population of approximately 35,500, making it the fifth-largest settlement in the county.

The town is part of the East Devon district, which has experienced significant growth, with the population increasing by 13.8% over the past decade.

The local economy is robust and diverse. Exmouth serves as a regional centre for leisure industries, particularly water sports such as sailing, kite sailing, paddleboarding, jet-skiing and windsurfing, as well as outdoor activities like birdwatching, cycling, and walking.

The town's location at the western end of the Jurassic Coast World Heritage Site and its proximity to the Exe Estuary, a Site of Special Scientific Interest, enhance its appeal to both residents and visitors.
